As a sort of closure attempt, an absentee ballot was mailed earlier this week to former Congresswoman Dunn (coordinated thru her staff). She should have it today or earlier. Our position was that we have personally made her an ongoing absentee voter. We're sorry for the oversight. Please convey our thanks to Councilmember Dunn to alerting us to having not sent her a ballot.

Please pass this e-mail along to De'Sean. This is potentially embarrassing to REALS and I hope someone can give her a ballot. Thanks.

Hi, Reagan:

I thought you'd be interested to know that for the third time I once again have not received my absentee ballot. Even with the direct involvement of our county executive last election, that fouled up department can't get it right.

We will begin our calling again tomorrow and possibly by the time of the primary election day, they will have FAXED me my ballot as they did for last year's primary. Appalling isn't it!

And more importantly, an opportunity for fraud.

On the happier side, we went to the Redskins game tonight. The last game we attended had the same result: the Redskins lost. Only then the victorious team was the Seahawks!

Happy 9/11.

Love,
Mom
